FOREWORD

God moved his hand over the face of the Earth, and the Earth's mantel cracked, spewing forth lava; giving birth to the mountains, Nature's eternally massive monument to God's power. To build men to match God's towering mountains; to attain social, spiritual, academic and physical heights, these are Trevecca's goals.

DEDICATION

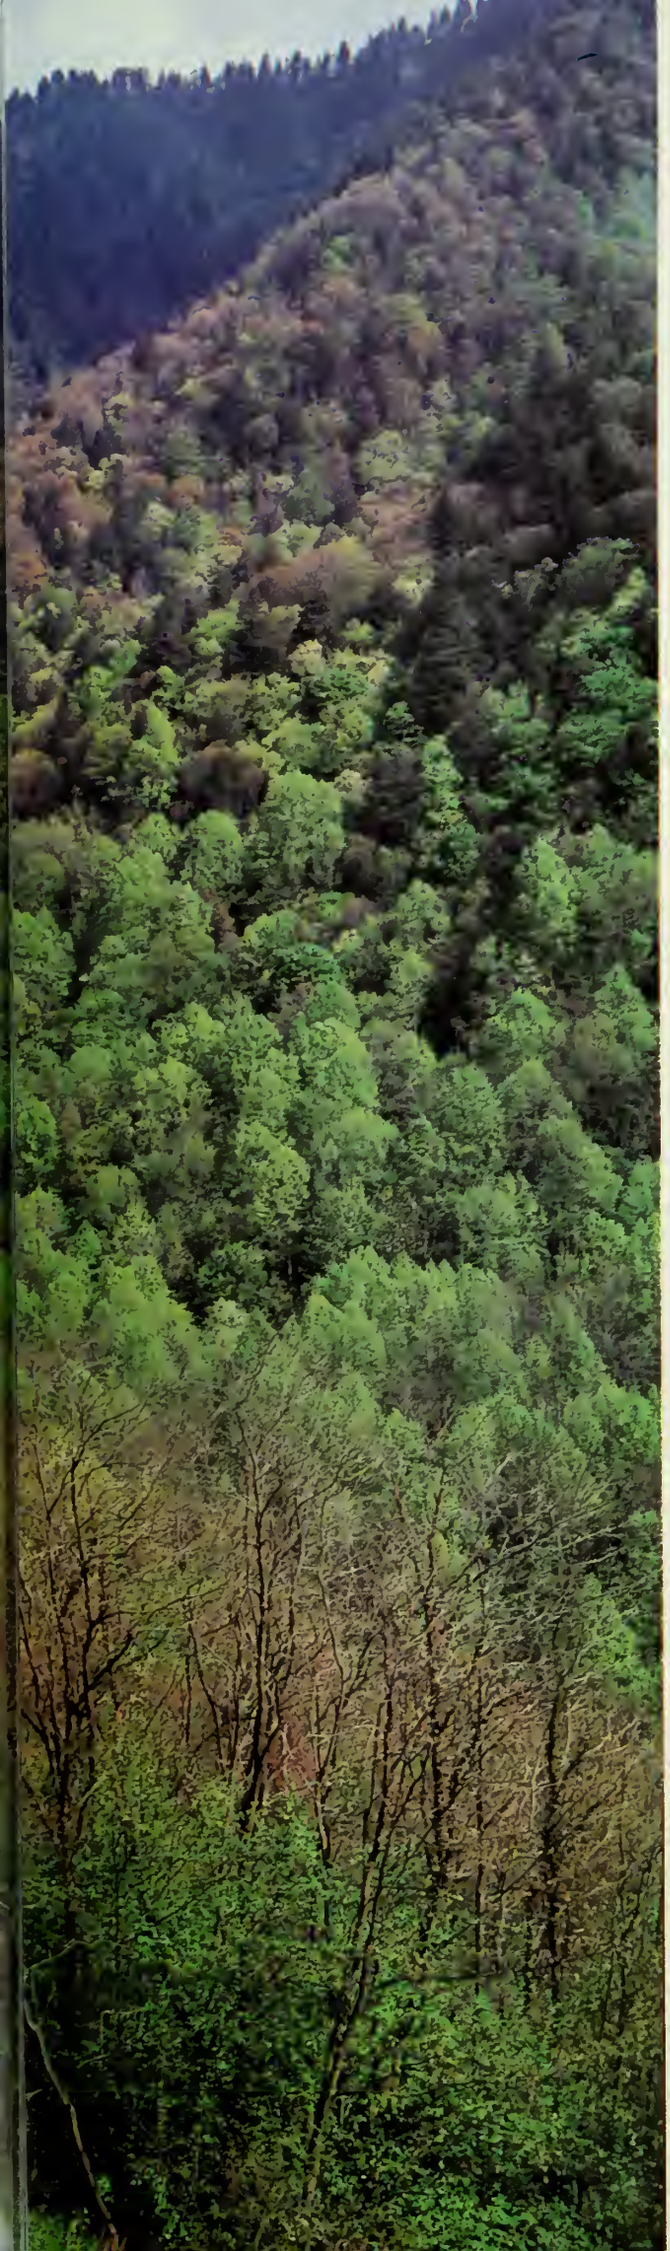

By vote of the DARDA staff Mr. Costa was selected as this year's recipient of the DARDA dedication. Trevecca has been very fortunate to have kept Mr. Costa on the faculty for the past thirteen years. He received his A.B. in Religion from Trevecca Nazarene College, M.A. in Science from George Peabody College, and is currently working on his Ed.S. His dedication and faithfulness to the school, to the students and, most important, to God have been unwavering and steadfast. The zest for life, boundless energy, the personal attention to his students and his sincere concern for others express what the hundreds of students who have sat under his teaching have experienced. During his stay at Trevecca, Professor Costa has epitomized our school moto: "To Be Rather Than To Seem." It is with great honor and respect that we dedicate this 1969 DARDA to Professor Jerry Costa.

MAKING MEN

TO MATCH MOUNTAINS

The events highlighting the year's social calendar provided the student of Trevecca Nazarene College with pleasureable entertainment. The Trevecca Artist Series and the Festival of Ideas constituted an excellent outlet for intellectual pursuits, while the Valentine Pageant and the class banquets added glamour to the years activities. These social events have broadened Trevecca's students to a social prominence that matches mountains.

THROUGH CULTURAL ENRICHMENT

THROUGH SPIRITUAL DEDICATION

Trevecca Nazarene College has a religious tradition as old as the college itself. This tradition constitutes the central axis upon which the college revolves. To provide a Christian education is the main purpose of Trevecca. For over a half-century Trevecca has functioned as a holiness college, providing the church with the finest religious workers in the realm of Christian service. The Trevecca Missionary Fellowship has provided inspiration for aspiring missionaries and evoked interest in mission work. The Christian Workers Association has spread its influence across the city through its various organizations. Education and business graduates are in demand in the city of Nashville because of their high moral and ethical standards. Indeed, Trevecca builds men to match spiritual mountains.

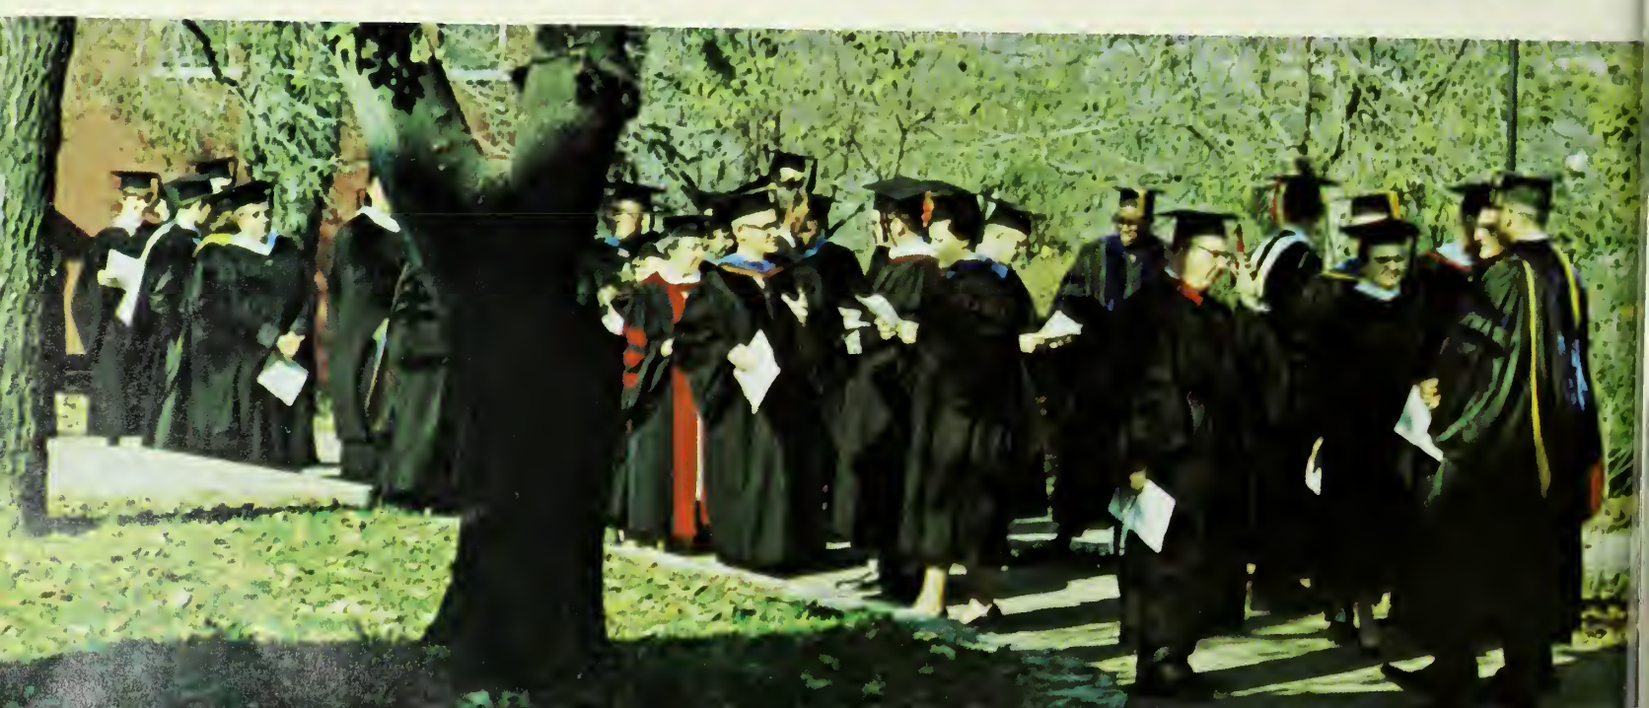

GO TROJANS

THROUGH DISCIPLINES OF KNOWLEDGE

Trevecca Nazarene College exists to provide quality education in the liberal arts for students desiring this kind of curriculum in an environment conducive to vital Christianity. Its aim is to promote an environment for development of intellectual competency. Through careful selection of faculty members, our students study under some of the best minds known in academic circles. Accepted both far and near, Trevecca graduates have made reputations of honor in further educational pursuits and have developed outstanding success and efficiency in their chosen occupations. From the entrance as a freshman to the departure after graduation, Trevecca's students have unmeasured opportunities for gaining knowledge and developing creative minds. Always it can be said that men and women are trained here to reach mountains of academic excellence.

THROUGH MOTION AND PARTICIPATION

The new gym with its olympic-sized swimming pool, hand ball courts, and basketball court has been an outstanding addition to the sports program at Trevecca. Featuring both intramural and intercollegiate activities, the athletic department has received enthusiastic players and spectators. The intercollegiate games proved to be exciting and the enthusiasm of Trojan fans has presented an unprecedented display of school spirit. A further purpose of the college is to provide moments for physical activity and thus build men to match physical mountains.

THROUGH ORDER AND PERSPECTIVE

Participation is a key word for Trevecca students. They continue to prove themselves through their participation in college-oriented organizations. Every student, no matter what his interests, can find a society, club or group in which to serve. A wide range of activities have been initiated by our service and academic clubs which have benefited the college, its students, and the surrounding community. Through these activities Trevecca students have received realistic pictures of others' needs and of their own responsibilities and opportunities for service. They also find that through working with others, they receive invaluable knowledge and experiences.

Dormitory living, cafeteria food, and extracurricular activities all come together to compose the basic elements of student life. Whether the student lives in Tidwell or Tennessee, Georgia or Mckay; whether he finds enjoyment shopping downtown or visiting Nashville's show places; whether he enjoys bowling or ice hockey—every student finds enjoyment in personal associations and moments of relaxation. So much of an individual's social life determines his views and outlooks. Experiences are enjoyed and horizons are broadened. We find that growth takes place and lives are molded at the game board, in the reception hall, with friends and acquaintances; our aim is that this growth will develop men and women of social grace equal to mountain heights.

College life is not purely academic. To form a wholesome, well-rounded individual, college life provides a spectrum of cultural life as well. Our lives are enriched, not only in a classroom, but also through the expression of a musician's touch, the profound thoughts of accomplished men, and social interaction.

TREVECCA ARTIST SERIES

TREVECCA ARTIST SERIES

A joint effort between the Student Council and the Lyceum Committee, the Trevecca Artist Series provides cultural entertainment and enrichment for Trevecca's students. The 1969 school year provided outstanding musicians who brought unusual delight to the listeners. Accomplishment and skill marked the entertainers as outstanding virtuosos.

An extraordinary performance by the Orchestra da Camera was the first Trevecca Artist Series for the year. From Europe for their first tour in the United States, the performers proved to be exceptional artists.

This performance of "Grotesco" required skill in modern music.

Ovid Young's performance depicted the flight of butterflies.

Dean Wilder delights his audience with songs of German romance.

Robert Hale's rich renditions created an evening of enjoyable entertainment.

FESTIVAL OF IDEAS

TREVECCA'S FESTIVAL SCENES

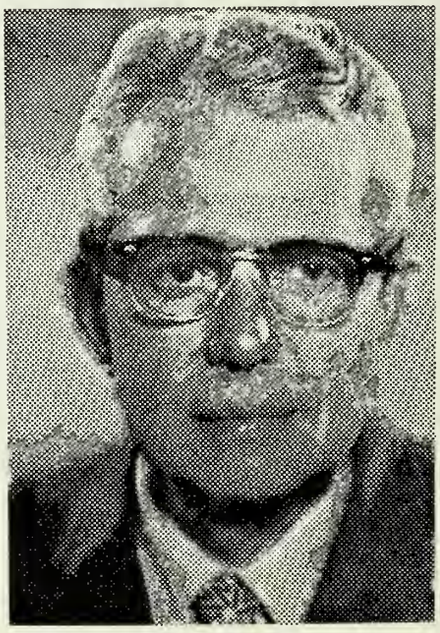

Organizing in the Fall Leadership Conference of 1967, the "Festival of Ideas" is a series of speakers sponsored by the student body, who relate their chosen fields to a given topic. Controversy is not the purpose of the "Festival"; however, each speaker might be controversial in his field. This year's topic, "The Affluent Society," is taken from the well-known book of the same title by Dr. John Kenneth Galbraith. The speakers related to us the relationship of education, science, religion and politics to our society. The names Brameld, Sayers, Wilfong, Marston, and Gore all have their place in the history of Trevecca as thought-provoking speakers. Thus the result of this successful "Festival" was many diverse ideas.

Charles Davis, who was in charge of the Festival of Ideas, enjoyed a week in Washington, D.C., with other history majors.

Bishop L. R. Marston, Free Methodist Church.

Dr. Theodore Brameld of Boston University.

T. A. A. BANQUET

The Trevecca Athletic Association is the largest and most active organization on campus. At the end of each school year the T.A.A. sponsors an athletic banquet to honor the outstanding athletes and to present awards. Carroll Dale, star flanker for the Green Bay Packers, was the honored guest of last year's banquet.

Carrol Dale presents Society of the Year Award to Pooch Davis and Jane Cranshaw.

Bill Wade of the Chicago Bears introduces Carrol Dale.

Mr. Heaberlin, Carrol Dale, and John Stark pose for pictures at the T.A.A. Banquet.

Dr. Dorothy Brown, speaker.

THANKSGIVING

Amidst the strains of Hawaiian guitars, the Senior class presented the Thanksgiving Banquet at Ravenwood Country Club. Colorful lei and a typical menu helped to transport the guests into the "Aloha" land. Trevecca's own cafeteria was magically transformed for the campus Thanksgiving-Christmas dinner. We applaud the cafeteria management and workers for the delicious buffet dinner.

Dr. & Mrs. Moore anticipate a meal of Cornish game hen.

Mrs. Moore brings greetings at the Hawaiian Luau.

In the glow of candlelight Charlotte and Larry enjoy the unusual at the cafeteria buffet.

VALENTINE BANQUET

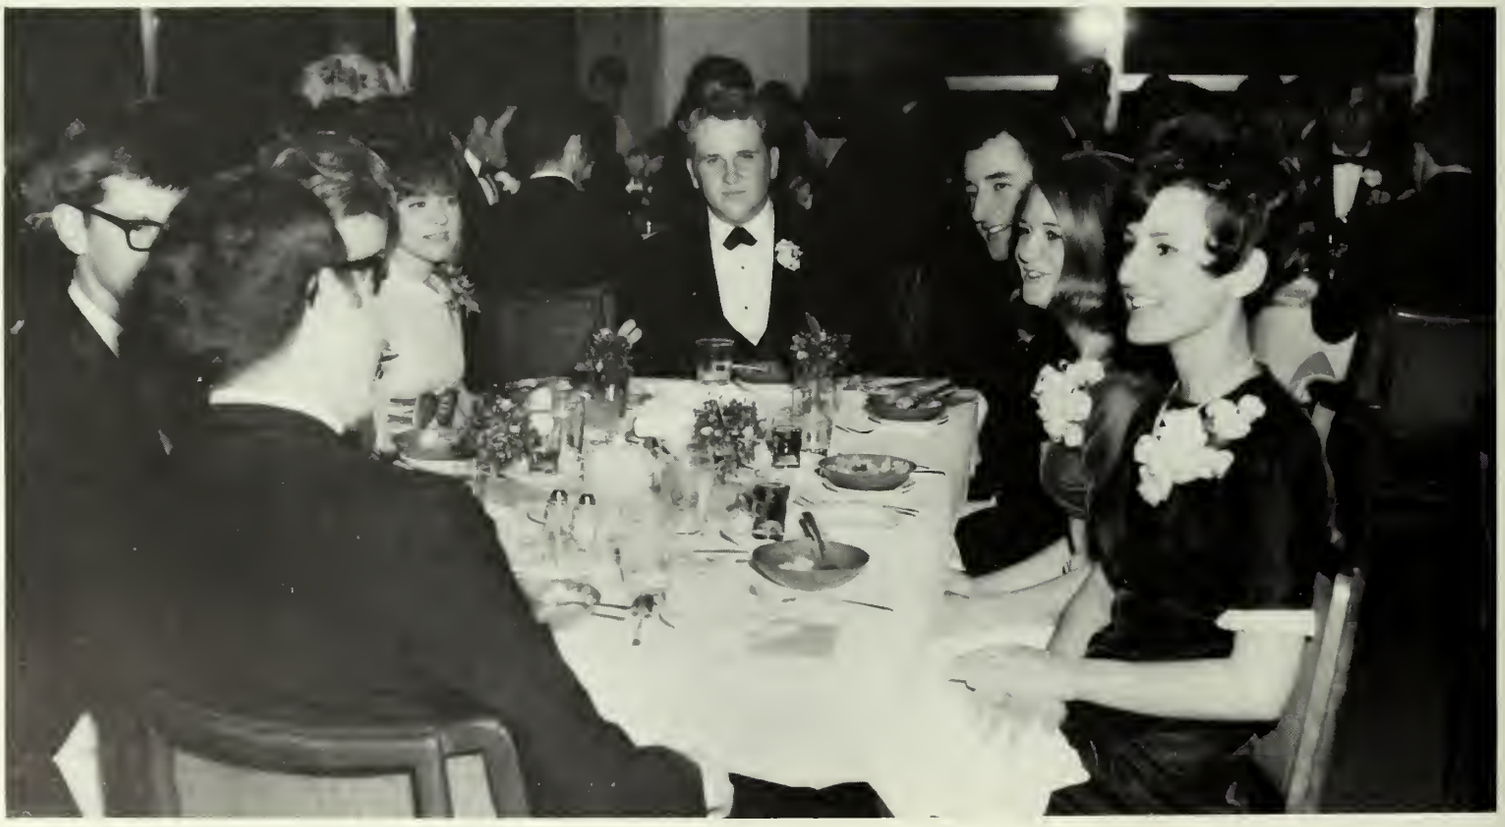

There is a tree in the forest, A tree that will give you a sign. Come along with me to the Sweetheart Tree. Come and carve your name next to mine. They say if you kiss the right sweetheart; the one you've been waiting for, then blossoms of white will burst into sight and your love will be true evermore.

The Moores and the Knights enjoy an evening of romance.

The Iris Room is a lovely setting for the Valentine Banquet.

CHAPEL

What makes Trevecca distinct from any other liberal arts college? To find the answer to this question one can turn to McClurkan Auditorium at 10:00 a.m. It is at this time that the student body and faculty retire to the chapel for a few minutes to pay tribute to God for His abundant blessings which He has so richly given us.

Prayer time around the altar brings spiritual renewal.

2 And it shall come to pass, if they say unto thee, Whither shall we go forth? then thou shalt tell them, Thus saith the LORD; [a]Such as are for death, to death; and such as are for the sword, to the sword; and such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such as are for the captivity, to the captivity.

3 And I will [c]appoint over them four [2]kinds, saith the LORD: the sword to slay, and the dogs to tear, and [d]the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the earth, to devour and destroy.

4 And [3]I will cause them to be [f]removed into all kingdoms of the earth, because of [h]Mā-nās'-sēh the son of Hēz-ē-kī'-ah king of Judah, for that which he did in Jerusalem.

5 For who shall have pity upon thee, O Jerusalem? or who shall bemoan thee? or who shall go aside [4]to ask how thou doest?

6 [m]Thou hast forsaken me, saith the LORD, thou art [o]gone backward: therefore will I stretch out my hand against thee, and destroy thee; [r]I am weary with repenting.

7 And I will fan them with a fan in the gates of the land; I will bereave them of [6]children, I will destroy my people, since they return not from their ways.

8 Their widows are increased to me above the sand of the seas: I have brought upon them [7]against the mother of the young men a spoiler at noonday: I have caused him to fall upon it suddenly, and terrors upon the city.

9 [z]She that hath borne seven languisheth: she hath given up the ghost; [z]her sun is gone down while it was yet day: she hath been ashamed and confounded: and the residue of them will I deliver to the sword before their enemies, saith the LORD.

10 ¶ [e]Woe is me, my mother, that thou hast borne me a man of strife and a man of contention to the whole earth! I have neither lent on usury, nor men have lent to me on usury; yet every one of them doth curse me.

11 The LORD said, Verily it shall be well with thy remnant; verily [1]I will cause [b]the enemy to entreat thee well in the time of evil and in the time of affliction.

12 Shall iron break the northern iron and the steel?

13 Thy substance and thy treasures will I give to the spoil without price, and that for all thy sins, even in all thy borders.

14 And I will make thee to pass with thine enemies [g]into a land which thou knowest not: for a [g]fire is kindled in mine anger, which shall burn upon you.

15 ¶ O LORD, [k]thou knowest: remember me, and visit me, and [l]revenge me of my persecutors; take me not away in thy longsuffering: know that [n]for thy sake I have suffered rebuke.

16 Thy words were found, and I did [p]eat them; and [q]thy word was unto me the joy and rejoicing of mine heart: for [5]I am called by thy name, O LORD God of hosts.

17 [s]I sat not in the assembly of the mockers, nor rejoiced; I sat alone because of thy hand: for thou hast filled me with indignation.

18 Why is my [t]pain perpetual, and my wound incurable, which refuseth to be healed? wilt thou be altogether unto me [u]as a liar, and as waters that [v]fail?

19 ¶ Therefore thus saith the LORD, [x]If thou return, then will I bring thee again, and thou shalt [a]stand before me: and if thou [b]take forth the precious from the vile, thou shalt be as my mouth: let them return unto thee; but return not thou unto them.

20 And I will make thee unto this people a fenced brasen wall: and they shall fight against thee, but [d]they shall not prevail against thee: for I am with thee to save thee and to deliver thee, saith the LORD.

21 And I will deliver thee out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem thee out of the hand of the terrible.

CHAPTER 16

THE word of the LORD came also unto me, saying,

2 Thou shalt not take thee a wife, neither shalt thou have sons or daughters in this place.

3 For thus saith the LORD concerning the sons and concerning the daughters that are born in this place, and concerning their mothers that bare them, and concerning their fathers that begat them in this land;

4 They shall die of [c]grievous deaths; they shall not be [d]lamented; neither shall they be buried; but they shall be [e]as dung upon the face of the earth: and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine; and their [f]carcases shall be meat for the fowls of heaven, and for the beasts of the earth.

5 For thus saith the LORD, [g]Enter not into the house of [h]mourning, neither go to lament nor bemoan them: for I have taken away my peace from this people, saith the LORD, even lovingkindness and mercies.

6 Both the great and the small shall die in this land: they shall not be buried, [n]neither shall men lament for them, nor [o]cut themselves, nor [p]make themselves bald for them:

7 Neither shall men [3]tear themselves for them in mourning, to comfort them for the dead; neither shall men give them the cup of consolation to [3]drink for their father or for their mother.

8 Thou shalt not also go into the house of feasting, to sit with them to eat and to drink.

9 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, [s]I will cause to cease out of this place in your eyes, and in your days, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride.

10 ¶ And it shall come to pass, when thou shalt shew this people all these words, and they shall say unto thee, [a]Wherefore hath the LORD pronounced all this great evil against us? or what is our iniquity? or what is our sin that we have committed against the LORD our God?

11 Then shalt thou say unto them, [b]Because your fathers have forsaken me, saith the LORD, and have walked after other gods, and have served them, and have worshipped them, and have forsaken me, and have not kept my law;

12 And ye have done [d]worse than your fathers; for, behold, [f]ye walk every one after the [i]imagination of his evil heart, that they may not hearken unto me:

13 [k]Therefore will I cast you out of this land [k]into a land that ye know not, neither ye nor your fathers; and there shall ye serve other gods day and night; where I will not shew you favour.

14 ¶ Therefore, behold, the [m]days come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be said, The LORD liveth, that brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;

15 But, The LORD liveth, that brought up the children of Israel from the land of the north, and from all the lands whither he had driven them: and [q]I will bring them again into their land that I gave unto their fathers.

16 ¶ Behold, I will send for many [r]fishers, saith the LORD, and they shall fish them; and after will I send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the holes of the rocks.

17 For mine [t]eyes are upon all their ways: they are not hid from my face, neither is their iniquity hid from mine eyes.

DR. HOWARD HAMLIN: GOD'S MAN

"Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.
But his delight is in the law of the Lord;
and in his law doth he meditate day and night.
And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper."
Psalms 1:1-3

Such a man as this is Dr. Hamlin;
A man who knows the value of both laughter and prayer;
A man who strives to live in perfect tune with God's will;
A man whose messages stirred and challenged us to seek God's will more fervently;
A man whose concern for souls shines forth in all he does;
Our prayer is that all of Trevecca's students will show the spirit of dedication and love that Dr. Hamlin has exemplified to us.

One of T.N.C.'s main goals is to prepare her students to spread the Gospel message in the everyday world. Opportunity for this is given through the work of the C.W.A. groups. The many experiences gained in these groups will be meaningful both now and in the future for all who take part, and better prepare them to take the message wherever they go. In this way our light of witness remains bright.

We come from far and near in conquest of truth. The goals which we must achieve are put before us as a stairway of knowledge. Sometimes we want to stop and look back, but always behind us is the challenge of our very being. Although we do fall and stumble, we cannot fail, we do not fail if we give our best. To you Trevecca we pledge, we give; from you Trevecca we gain our all.

The President Points to the Mountains

Men who scale mountains successfully learn from experience. They do not treat their experience as a mere repetition of what they did before, but use their skill in extracting meaning from it. Thus, their ability becomes resourcefulness and creativity in its highest form.

Mountain climbers have an inner compulsion that far outweighs the outer distractions that defeat and rob those less motivated. This drive is more than motivation. It is self-motivation. It is the difference between a mediocre life in the quagmire of existence or the exhilarating living among the peaks.

Confidence, courage, discipline, and power are necessary for successful mountain climbers. A man must have confidence in himself and his purposes. With confidence, he will have the courage to do what he needs to do. With discipline he will be in control of himself to carry through on his courage.

However, these sterling qualities alone are not sufficient equipment for the Christian. He must have help from above if he is to successfully scale the mountains of life.

At Trevecca Nazarene College we are endeavoring to help young people adequately to develop qualifications for successful mountain climbing. We are giving special attention to focusing on the most important prerequisite of all—that of helping them find and keep Jesus Christ as Saviour and Guide.

WINTER QUARTER STUDENTS

INAUGURATION

Dr. Moore presents his inaugural address in the new gymnasium.

Chancellor Heard of Vanderbilt University and U.S. Senator Fulton converse with Dr. Moore on his inauguration day.

Nashville Mayor, Beverly Briley, speaks at inauguration ceremonies.

Chairman of the Board of Trustees, Otto Stucki, officially installs Dr. Moore as Trevecca's President.

Outgoing President, Dr. William Greathouse, leads the inaugural prayer.

Dr. Dillond Holt of Scarritt College brings greetings at Dr. Moore's inauguration.

Vim, spirit, vigor, enthusiasm and activity were the passwords for the athletic program this year. Creating a maximum of spirit by their unfaltering efforts, the boys and girls who participated in sports found satisfaction and enjoyment through physical development.

INTRAMURAL

SPORTS

TREVECCA ATHLETIC ASSOC.

One of the largest and most active organizations on Trevecca's campus is the Trevecca Athletic Association. It actively sponsors four intramural societies—Alpha, Beta, Delta, Gamma—with competitive games for every season. Every member fights to make his society the top society of the year.

Involved in his game, Coach Boner shouts directions to the varsity boys.

The TAA Council: Sharon Cronise, Jane Crenshaw, Coach Bill Boner, Preston Ponce, Mrs. Janice Reid.

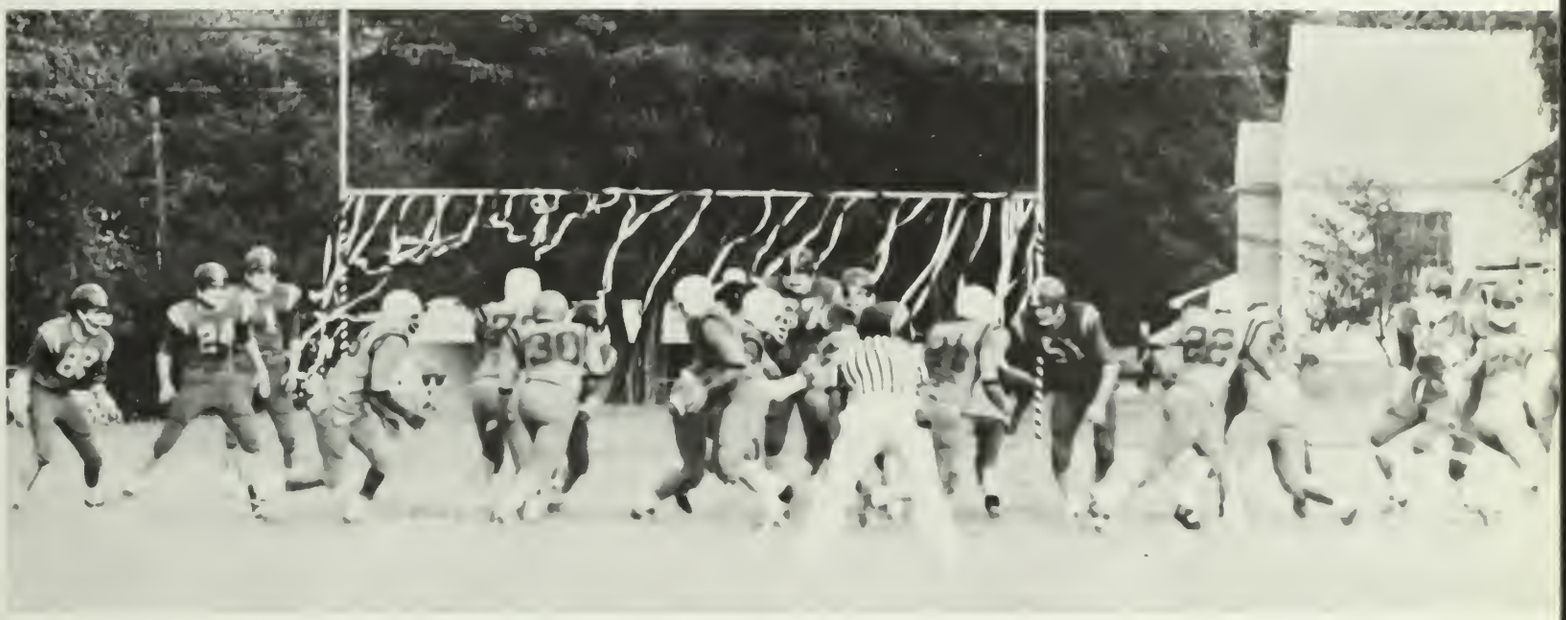

Kickoff of the 1968-69 Trevecca Football Season.

Troop No. 91 serves as honor guard at the Olivet game.

Alphas run their famed "end around" against the Deltas.

Some enthusiasm!!!

The 1968-69 school year was a major one for sports. Not only did Trevecca play its first intercollegiate basketball games, but with the use of the new gymnasium, the entire physical education program was given a "shot in the arm." School spirit was recharged and teams received unflinching support from loyal fans.

Alpha's Dominate 1968 Football Season

Quarterback Pooch Davis refuses to be brought down.

Alpha's workhorse Preston Ponce grinds out tough yardage against Beta's.

Top: P. Marlin, D. Patterson, P. Davis, P. Vann, E. Kesselring, W. Nixon, R. Lynn. Middle: B. Brumfield, B. McDonald, R. Barnes, E. Johnson, S. McWilliams, J. Allen. Bottom: C. Hare, A. Boatman, W. Marshall, F. Church, D. Hodge, K. Davis.

Desire is the name of the game. Larry Ladd opens a hole for fullback, Randy Smith.

The Beta's gang tackling techniques make it hard going for Delta, Gary Black.

Hard Hitting Beta's —Small But Quick

Front row: L. Moore, D. Pinner, D. Lockhart, G. Shipp, D. Jones, T. Myers, S. Lanham. Middle row: T. Lovelace, J. Ponce, J Zollinhofer, R Welker, R. Dillard, G. Davis. Back row: R. Fitzgerald, T. Thornton, G. Fletcher.

The strong Delta line open a big hole for Gary Black.

GIRLS' INTRAMURAL SPORTS

Girls' intramural action was full of fun and excitement this year. The girls participated in a great way. The action was in fun at times and other times each girl played with all her heart. The competition between the societies was always at a maximum. The Gamma Society challenged the Alpha Society at every opportunity and the Deltas and Betas were always there to increase the action and competition.

MEN'S GLEE CLUB

Into the homes and hearts of dedicated Nazarenes in the states of Alabama and Mississippi, the gallant young men of MGC marched with their harmonious renditions of praises to God. With big sound and much variety, Mr. James VanHook and the fellows participated in the services at General Assembly, a coveted treat for them.

The Student National Education Association has been extremely active this year. Under the leadership of President Linda Satin, plans have been made for various projects and activities. Included among these are: fund-raising drives toward the purchase of a copy machine for the Curriculum Library, presenting the school with a glass-enclosed map with schools in the area pinpointed, providing usherettes to the Tennessee Education Association Convention, and sending delegates to the state S.N.E.A. convention. The biggest and most rewarding project of the year was tutoring underprivileged children in the city.

As we embark upon our college years, we encounter new and unique experiences. The way in which we approach these experiences lays the format and pattern we will follow in meeting life's challenges. We work, we play, we experiment—always hoping to unravel the secret passageway of life opportunities and fulfillment.

The Thread of Life: Love, Sadness, and Self-Satisfaction

It has been asserted many times that students gain more knowledge outside the classroom than within it. As each of us strives for acceptance and achievement in our formal college education, we must learn to live and cooperate with our fellow students. From long registration lines to graduation we have lived as individuals but also as one. Our opinions and values are as vast and different as space itself, but also we are one. Let us journey through this student life section together and with a feeling of nostalgia we shall reminisce our year's activity in an informal atmosphere.

Freshmen Lead A Rat's Life

During Freshmen Recognition Week, the youngest generation of college students, the Freshmen, truly led a rat's life. It involved creeping from corner to corner and sneaking from room to room to keep from being caught by the cat, any Sophomore. The Rats won out as they captured the Sophomore Class President, David Dodge; however, a hint of retaliation was in the air and a number of Freshmen boys found themselves on an unexpected hike.

Experiences We Must All Endure

From the frustrating turmoil of registration day to our quiet devotions, we face many new and challenging experiences at Trevecca. Through this annual may these experiences never be forgotten for we may never experience them again.

GHOSTS, GOBLINS, AND WITCHES

Scary tales, spooky shrieks, and laughs of gaiety filled the night air surrounding this October event. The Junior class, who sponsored the Halloween Party, created an evening of fun and games that drove the spooks away and brought enjoyable excitement.

WNAZ

We at Trevecca are most fortunate to possess our own campus radio station. WNAZ has for the past two years presented an excellent program of music and public enlightenment. The station is staffed by Jim Quiggins, Dale Killingsworth, George Shipp, Dale Hale, and Greg Rickey, with David Deese serving as station manager.

And now the news.

T.N.C.'s school spirit is about to be awakened.

PEP CLUB

The emergence of Trevecca's first participation in inter-scholastic sports brought about a surge of school spirit. The newly formed Pep Club is the product of this enthusiasm. Although small in number, our school spirit is excelled by no other.

Trojans look forward to victory.

YOUNG REPUBLICAN CLUB

Trevecca's Young Republican Club was actively engaged in this year's elections—both national and local. The club also sponsored a rally held here. At a time when our nation's colleges and universities are being over-run and rioted by unscrupulous young people, it is a reassuring feeling to know that we have conscientious students who want to keep this nation free, not by riots but by democracy. This is the ideal of the Young Republican Club.

NORTH CAROLINA

ROME WAS NOT BUILT IN A DAY.

Yet, it was built by the day.

"...let each man take heed how he buildeth."

Whether we think of Rome in terms of its physical landmarks like the Coliseum, the Forum, and tne Appian Way, or of the great empire of the Caesars, the maxim holds good.

Someone planned, others gave their finances, and some their strength to realize the dream.

And so it is with life's projects, and the building up of churches, colleges, and character.

Life is made up of continuous duties which, in themselves, seem unimportant: of the virtues of reliability, kindness, punctuality, faithfulness, and integrity.

Progress is slow. Delays are frequent and vexatious. Yet the builder of Christian character knows the encouragement born of faith in Christ as the foundation....

And the thought that, even though Trevecca Nazarene College and the NORTH CAROLINA DISTRICT cannot be built in a day, yet day by day they are being built.

CHRIST CHALLENGES YOUTH EVEN IN VASTSPACE!

No one ever saw an acorn change into an oak—but everybody knows they do.
It's because growth is a deep force within—that works wonderfully in unseen ways.
And so it is with a church—its growth is not a new building or an enlarged staff, it is truth—and life—and peace—and joy—silently at work within the hearts of its people.
We strive then for our church to be a place where people grow—from acorns into oaks.

Many thanks to the Church of the Nazarene in Wrightsville, Georgia and the Lauderdale Manor Church of the Nazarene in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida for their contributions to the DARDA of 1969!

A Sincere Thanks to

for the artist sketches which he drew for the advertising section of the DARDA!

√ complete creative art assistance in planning and designing your book

√ actual known production performances (by records) of substantially less than 10 weeks, as required by most yearbook manufacturers. No contract claims, either, of an additional 4 days on delivery for each 1 day any deadline is missed

√ an association with a firm who has specialized in designing yearbooks perhaps longer than any other company

√ an all out effort to please you in design, quality, and service at competitive prices

√ our insistence of your reading and checking page proofs to avoid (or at least minimize) possible glaring errors in the completed edition

What more could you ask?
